Kia ora, Kia orana, Mālō e lelei, Talofa lava, Bula, and welcome to Term Three, 2025!

I hope your tamariki had a well-deserved break and are now ready for another exciting term with us.

Term Two was fantastic and full of opportunities. We've now reached the halfway point of the year. We kicked off the term by exploring STEAM - Robotic Engineering, where students showed great curiosity by creating Mars rovers and learning about speed, time, and distance. Their engagement, understanding, and learning were proudly showcased during our school's STEAM Fair Exhibition.

Our learning in Term Two focused on speeches in Humanities, where we explored the theme of Whenua -Land. Each student chose a topic related to this theme, developed their ideas in writing, and proudly presented their speeches in class.

In Week 3, we had our Noho Marae, providing students with an exciting opportunity to experience and learn more about Māori culture. It was a time for building positive relationships, and a memorable night for all. Students enjoyed swimming in our new heated pool, which even had its very own Manu rock where they could splash and show off their best bombs. After swimming, we shared a delicious dinner, told stories, and finished the night with lights out. We also participated in several other amazing events, including Girls' Night In, Boys' Night Out, Pink Shirt Day, Cross Country, and our Mid-Term Winter Social. These events were filled with energy and excitement, and we're so grateful for the strong support from our students and whānau.

This term, we have more exciting events lined up! We will be showcasing our talents in the School UN Show, Mathex, and Student-Involved Conferences (SICs). I hope you are looking forward to these events as much as the class is.

Our class goal for Term Three is to earn a Quartet Crown for the entire week. This means perfect attendance, no lates, full uniform, and a positive attitude towards learning. We've already had some great wins, so let's keep the communication, support, and fire burning.
