

Room 28 – Class Letter

ADVENTUROUS RISK-TAKERS; PERSISTENT FOCUSED ACHIEVEMENT

Monday 20 July 2020

Kia Ora everyone! I hope you all had a great break and are ready to learn and take advantage of many of the great events coming up at MI.

MI Expression

Room 28 did some amazing work during the two art weeks in Term Two. Their creativity, time management and sense of responsibility were very impressive.

Everyone created an individual optimistic slogan inspired by the pop artists Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein and the students all contributed to an amazing canvas class piece.

Humanities

In Humanities we have been focusing on optimism by creating newspaper articles on stories from lockdown and on athletes who have overcome adversity.

Term Three

In Term Three, Room 28 will be engaging in New Zealand history, music and global discoveries. We also have our Marae Stay and assembly in Term Three. Cultural Enrichment and Options will also continue on Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank whanau for encouraging the students to be positive by helping them be in school and on time.

Ngā mihi nui,

Padraic Bacon

Your child's teachers for Term 3 will be:

Humanities: Mr Bacon
Math: Mr Tofilau
Science: Mrs Oh
PE: Ms Lee
Music: Mr Huata
Sustainable: Miss McB.
Enterprise

Attendance

Thanks to all of the parents/guardians for making sure that students are in school and on time. If I am calling/doing home visits it is purely out of worry that students are missing out on their academics.

Extra-curricular activities

Please encourage your child to get involved in as many extra-curricular activities as possible. M.I offers a huge variety of activities and it would be a shame for students in room 28 especially the year 8's not to take advantage of this.
