Tēnā koe, Talofa Lava, Malō e lelei and greetings!

Welcome back, students and Whanau! What a busy Term One we have had! Right at the start of the year, we had our Night Market. It was very successful thanks to your support and the great mahi our students helpers put into the event. It allowed us to plan and organise our Survival Camp. Our camp was an incredible experience! Room 30 students showed their ability to get out of their comfort zone. They displayed an adventurous spirit and gained confidence. I am very proud of them. These first few weeks of school allowed our students to bond and create the relationships that has set ourselves for an awesome year together.

In week 5, we started our timetable and everyone settled well into their new routine while keeping a positive learning attitude in all their subjects. Our councillors and Whānau Leaders also had the opportunity to go to Camp Morley to work on developing their leadership skills.

Thank you for attending your child's SIC Week 10. Your support is very important as we are working together to help your child reach their full potential. I have enjoyed having the opportunity to meet you all.

Today, we start our MI Expression Module, an art-based module, where Room 30 students will explore their creativity and express their personality. In Week 3, you will be able to visit our Art Exhibition and bid on our class piece.

On the Monday 13th of May, we will stay overnight at Te Kahurangi, our school marae. I look forward to us all spending more time together and learning about each other to keep building on the learning culture of class.

As always please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Kind regards,

Léa Debris
